Waves and Waves of Love

Stories of Meher Baba and His Home in the West

Compiled and Edited by Carolyn M. Ball

This is a stunning book. I don't believe there is any like it. The years Carolyn spent gathering and compiling the stories, and love of the Avatar of our age have yielded a beautifully presented book. So many great tales of the lives of the people in this book makes it a treasure for all those who read it. This book has the power to touch the hearts of the world.
